Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these “photosensitive epileptic seizures” while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions: Sit farther from the screen; use a smaller screen; play in a well-lit room; do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Knockback Combo

Perform one of the displayed gestures quickly to initiate the next attack in the combo. Knockback Combos can have up to four hits added, but the input window gets shorter with stronger enemies. Choose quickly, or you can fail the combo and allow the enemy to land a counterattack.

If you are hit with an enemy's Smash Attack, four different gestures appear on screen. Perform one of them in time to dodge the blow and counterattack.

*NOTE: If you see a red circle with a line through it over one of the gestures, that move is "forbidden" and cannot be performed.

Assault Combo

Unleash a series of quick punches and kicks while in Melee Range to fill your Assault Gauge. When the Assault Gauge is full, you have the opportunity to perform an Assault Combo. Continue punching and kicking your opponent to refill the bar and continue the combo. If your Assault Gauge is not filled in time, the opponent is able to perform a counterattack.

If your opponent fills their Assault Gauge and catches you in an Assault Combo, perform the gestures displayed on-screen to fill your bar for a counterattack.

Escape & Approach

Jumping while in Melee Range allows you to perform an Escape Attack. After jumping, perform a rapid series of punch gestures to fill your attack meter. Your character successfully performs the Escape Attack once the meter is full.

Jumping while in Blast Range enables you to perform an Approach Attack. After jumping, a gesture is displayed on the left and right sides of the screen. Successfully perform one of these gestures to complete the attack. If you fail, the enemy will perform a counterattack.

If the enemy performs an Escape or Approach Attack, perform a quick series of punches and kicks to fill your meter. Fill the meter in time and you may perform a counterattack.

*NOTE: Escape and Approach Attacks consume Ki when used.

Super Attacks

Super Attacks require Ki to execute. To charge your Ki, perform special attack gestures or, place both of your hands near your hips and squat down. Hold this gesture to fill the Ki Gauge until you have enough energy for a Super Attack.

Super Attacks are different for each character, so follow the gestures on the left side of the screen near the Ki Gauge to perform the move. Once initiated, follow the motions of the character to finish the attack. The more accurately you match the motion of your character, the more damage the Super Attack dishes out.

If your opponent attempts to counter your Super Attack, follow the on-screen gestures to fill up your gauge and successfully land your attack.

When hit by an enemy's Super Attack, you can opt to Guard, Evade, or Intercept by following one of the three gestures displayed on-screen.

GUARD

Guarding a Super Attack does not consume Ki and reduces the amount of damage taken from the enemy. It is a means of defense that is always available.

EVADE

Evading consumes 25% of a full Ki Gauge and you do not take damage from the opponent's Super Attack.

INTERCEPT

Intercepting an opponent's Super Attack requires half of your Ki Gauge. Unleash a series of rapid punch and kick gestures to fill your meter. If successful, your opponent is hit with a counterattack and you do not receive any damage.

It is possible to unlock new characters for use in Score Attack mode or power-up existing characters using the QR reader feature.
